

CREFLO DOLLAR: Facebook post of 25th June 2019

CREFLO DOLLAR and 'APOSTLE' BANK AKINMOLA

Over recent days there has been an advertising 'blitz' on Premier 'Christian' Radio, a radio station that airs a wide 'selection' of 'Christian' views – a few would be 'sound' but many are, shall we say, 'unsound'. The 'blitz' has been to promote a week of 'ministry' by those mentioned above and I will shortly give a link that details the event.

However, whilst I am not familiar with the second named, I am certainly aware of the 'ministry of CREFLO DOLLAR. He features in short video (first appearance @ 1.19) on our ministry YouTube site and this is the link to it –

Another relevant short video clip can be watched on this link –

(start @ 55.50 and listen through to 56.56 – the quote about 'STUFF' relates to what Creflo Dollar said, and not Kenneth Copeland, as I inadvertently said)

Back in 2015 Mr Dollar made headline news when the board of the church he heads up announced they were appealing for $65 million to purchase a new private jet for Mr Dollar – saying that it was essential to enable him to fulfil his 'ministry'.

There are several helpful articles about that appeal on this link –

Mr Dollar, like Kenneth Copeland and other false teachers also teaches that when He died on the cross, the Lord went to hell for 3 days. You can read his heretical views in the article on this link –

I mentioned in my opening paragraph that I would give a link to the event being advertised and this is it –

I also mentioned that I was not familiar with the second named person, but somehow his name, 'BANK', seems quite appropriate when you consider he is teaming up with Mr DOLLAR. Clearly this is an event that God's true people should totally ignore and also issue warnings about should suitable occasions arise.
