

‘Kingdom Come Conference’: Antrim: August 2022. Same 2019 question - whose ‘KINGDOM’?

Back in March 2019 I wrote an article that I titled as follows –

‘Kingdom Come Conference’: Belfast: April 2019. BUT whose ‘KINGDOM’?

This new article should explain the sub-heading used for it, namely

Same 2019 question - whose ‘KINGDOM’?

I began my 2019 article with these words –

Details of this ‘Kingdom Come Conference’ which is scheduled to be held 4th–6th April 2019 at Glenmachan Church of God can be accessed on the following link -

<https://www.kingdomcomeconference.com/>

On that link you will learn that this planned conference is a partnership between a local group, ‘Journey Community Church’ and the American ‘Bethel Church Redding’

On that SAME LINK you can now access details of the similarly-named conference due to be held 11th – 14th August 2022 but this time at Shane’s Castle, Antrim. Once more this event is a partnership between ‘Journey Community Church’ and the American ‘Bethel Church Redding’. This is what Shane’s Castle and grounds look like –

Judging by the details/descriptions of the speakers and by the hefty costs involved for selected attendance (see details on <https://journeycommunity.churchsuite.com/events/fcne9qbn>) the overheads (estimated at £85,000+) must be extremely daunting. In addition, much of the programme/schedule contains elements that replicate a lot that took place in Belfast in 2019. That being the case I would encourage a re-reading of what I wrote in 2019 as it explains why I concluded my article in these words –

In the title to this article, I posed the question 'But whose Kingdom?' I am fully persuaded that this conference will do nothing to build the Kingdom of God (unless of course God Himself sovereignly and graciously overrules and saves souls IN SPITE of what is said and done). If it is not His 'Kingdom', as I firmly believe to be the case, then that only leaves one alternative and precious souls need to be "delivered" by God, as Paul puts it in Colossians 1:13, "from the power of darkness and ... translated into the kingdom of his dear Son". May we as God's people pray to that end.

Earlier this year I received a message from someone I did not know, it was a great encouragement and part of that message read as follows –

Hi Cecil, thank you very much for all the above information. I came across your post the other day about John Ashe and Journey Community Church ... I was in that church from the beginning. It wasn't always like it is today. When John connected with Bethel church things began to go downhill badly... (Having left) I then began to research the Charismatic World and had my eyes well and truly opened. We are now at xxxx church and it is so refreshing to hear the Word of God preached again!

Is there anything that I would add by way of warning to what I wrote back in 2019? Well, there are a number of things.

1. If you have access to Facebook then this page is well worth visiting - <https://www.facebook.com/BethelChurchandChristianity>
2. One of the speakers at this year's conference is Keith 'Mitch' Mitchell of 'Crown Jesus Ministries – his participation in this conference is yet more evidence of why he and CJM are not to be trusted as I pointed out in my previous articles located on –
 - (a) <https://www.takeheed.info/pdf/2020/March/crown-jesus-ministries-team-concerns.pdf>
 - (b) <https://www.takeheed.info/pdf/2019/October/Crown-Jesus-Ministries.pdf>
3. A recent helpful article on the subject of 'Bethel and Healing' can be accessed on this link - <https://fitl.co.za/2022/04/28/bethels-false-teaching-on-healing/>
4. Another speaker listed for August is Dr Julia Muir, mentioned in my previous article in connection with a 'hocus-pocus' practice known as THEOTHERAPY. You can read about its 'dark pedigree' from page 3 onwards in my 2019 article.
5. In my closing comments below I make reference to the dark supernatural realm that Bethel will introduce people to – am I alone in this assessment – 'no' – as this helpful article details - <https://fitl.co.za/2021/07/13/rediscovering-bethel-divination-mysticism-and-vain-imaginations/>

The 'bottom line' is that this costly conference is being organised by people who follow 'another Jesus', proclaim 'another gospel' and are being led by 'another spirit'. Yes, they will facilitate people to make contact with a spiritual 'kingdom' but it is not the Kingdom of Light of the Lord Jesus Christ (Colossians 1:12-13). My prayer is that both attendance numbers and income receipts will fall far short of what the organisers are hoping for.

It is clear from events happening all round the world that SATAN and 'his army' have in recent years become exceedingly and increasingly active and, in closing, whatever your view of end-times, I would commend to you the following pamphlet/article written by Shaun Willcock of Bible Based Ministries and entitled – 'Satan's Little Season'
