BELFAST BIBLE COLLEGE has renamed itself as BELFAST SCHOOL of THEOLOGY.

This upcoming launch event demonstrates vividly why I have written warning articles about it and also its guest speaker, Alister McGrath, in recent years. These articles can be accessed on the following links –

As for the subject matter -
'Faith, Theology and Apologetics: Learning from C S Lewis':
Well that is just the icing on this poisonous cake as this article clearly shows –

One of the comments posted in response to my post was by a good friend, Rev Bob McEvoy, who gave a link to an article he had written and it is good –

As a Christian I am in no way superstitious but I have to confess
I did smile a little when I saw the date of the planned launch

FRIDAY 13TH SEPTEMBER.

My prayer is that those who are truly saved and who attend this 'School of Theology' will have their discernment antennae fully switched on.
